THE BUSHNELL

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

A Sense of Community Makes All the Difference

Welcome to The Bushnell for the next engagement in the 2025|26 Broadway Series, a show rooted in surprise, heart, and humor!

The Tony Award-winning Shucked has been called “The best and funniest new musical on Broadway” (New York Post), while the New York Stage Review dubbed it “more hilarious than any show since The Book of Mormon!”

Shucked may be set in a cornfield, but its themes of connection, family, and unity are universal. As we are about to bid farewell to winter and welcome the arrival of spring, there are parallels between this story and the sense of renewal that permeates The Bushnell’s campus this time of year. On Saturday, March 7, we’ll host our annual gala, Ovations, which raises critical funding and support for The Bushnell’s education and community outreach programs. Later in the month, on Monday, March 30, we’ll unveil the 2026|27 Broadway Series at the highly anticipated Season Announcement event.

While, by nature, both these milestones of The Bushnell’s calendar are forward-looking, they are reminders of the importance of community. From our patrons and donors to corporate partners and neighboring arts organizations, these connections help to sustain us, invigorate our work, and inspire us to strive for even greater heights.

Before the arrival of the next Broadway performance (Kinky Boots, March 17-22), there are several terrific events showcasing the full range of The Bushnell’s programming. The next installment in this season’s Bushnell Children’s Theatre is Hero: The Boy From Troy on March 3. This is followed by Matthew Morrison (March 4); The Future of the Environment by the CT Forum (March 12); and the next Hartford Symphony Orchestra Masterworks performance, Pines of Rome (March 13-15).

I’m glad you’re here for the hilarious and unforgettable Shucked and thank you for being part of this incredible Bushnell community.

Sincerely,

David R. Fay

Martin Hayes

in Concert

University of Saint Joseph

Sunday March 15

Usher in St. Patrick's Day with legendary Irish fiddler Martin Hayes, appearing in his only Connecticut performance. A former West Hartford resident, Hayes returns to Connecticut for one exclusive solo concert. Distinguished by The Irish Post as "the most important Irish musician of his generation," don't miss a rare opportunity to experience this world-class artist performing solo in an intimate concert setting. As The Irish Examiner noted, a Hayes performance is "as close to a spiritual experience as music can be...food for the soul."

Opening Act

An opening set will feature a solo performance by former Connecticut Official State Troubadour Tom Callinan paying tribute to New Ross, County Wexford, Hartford's sister city, as well as an Irish traditional music ensemble led by fiddler Jeanne Freeman, director of the Connecticut Academy of Irish Music, with past All-Ireland button accordion champion Damien Connolly, Claudine Langille on mandolin, and Flynn Cohen (of the John Whelan band) on guitar.
