MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

“Good Times Never Seemed So Good” – A New Season Begins

Seven months of build-up and anticipation have led to this moment. And, after speaking to so many of you, I have the sense that we are all ready for an unforgettable season at The Bushnell. It is so exciting to be able to say: welcome to A Beautiful Noise and the start of the 2024|25 Broadway Series! I'm so glad you're here to experience this inspiring and exhilarating musical memoir of an American icon.

Neil Diamond's songs have provided the backdrop for so many of life's moments over the years; it is wonderful to welcome his story and music to the Mortensen stage. Whether it is "America," "Forever in Blue Jeans," or "Sweet Caroline," we all have our favorites. The Washington Times calls this production "...a heartwarming celebration of Mr. Diamond's uplifting music and inspirational life." While New York Amsterdam News adds that the show is "a delight for your ears, eyes, and heart—an example of Broadway getting it totally right!"

There is so much excitement around the premiere of this show in Hartford, with much of it being centered around Nick Fradiani's return to Connecticut in the starring role. The New Haven native first rose to national prominence for his appearances on America's Got Talent and American Idol, the latter on which he became the first winner from the Northeast!

While we are thrilled to kick-off the season, we are also missing an important piece of our Bushnell experience. I wanted to take a moment to acknowledge the loss of our beloved trumpeter, Willie Nelson, who passed away last July. Regular patrons will remember Willie as a fixture as he greeted us all with his trumpet playing on Capitol Avenue. His warmth and good cheer will be missed.

Thank you for being part of the excitement of a new season. I hope you enjoy the sounds, story, and magical performance of A Beautiful Noise!

Sincerely,

LETTER FROM NEIL

The idea of a Broadway musical about my life has always been a daunting one. It wasn't until the symptoms of Parkinson's disease prematurely ended my touring career that I started to seriously consider the prospect. I say "prematurely" because my heart and soul would tour until the day I die if only my body would cooperate.

My friend and longtime producer Bob Gaudio had some success with his little show, Jersey Boys (perhaps you've heard of it?), so I went to him for some guidance on where to begin. Bob brought in Ken Davenport and together they built the incredible creative team that became, A Beautiful Noise.

When Anthony McCarten came on board, we spent hours talking. It was his idea to frame the show in the context of therapy sessions. I loved the idea and never shied away from talking about my years of psychoanalysis. There used to be a stigma around talking about mental health and thankfully through the years, it's become an important and accepted topic of conversation.

Sitting in the theatre and watching the show has itself been therapeutic: reliving some joyful and some of the painful parts of my life, wishing perhaps that if I could only make a few edits in the script, it would change some of the reality of what I was seeing. But in the end, coming to terms with my life and accepting it has somehow come full circle. I feel fortunate and full of gratitude for all the people in my life. It is each of them who have impacted and shaped me in their own way to get me to the place where I am now... a better man. A better father. A better husband. A better songwriter.

I'd like to thank Marcia and Jaye, this story wouldn't be possible without you. My children and grandchildren for your most important supporting roles in my life. My wife, Katie, who encouraged me to keep going through this process and finally, to Dr. Lu Katzman, my longtime therapist who inspired this story. May she rest in peace.

ANNUAL FUND DONORS

Horace Bushnell Society The Bushnell Center Membership

Thank you to all who support The Bushnell with your giving. The generosity of donors like you remains the foundation of our success, and we appreciate your commitment to the performing arts in our community.

We would also like to recognize our group of valued anonymous donors. The impact of your generosity on our daily endeavors does not go unnoticed.

The Annual Fund is essential to both The Bushnell's sustainability and future vitality, and we encourage you to consider a gift today. For more information, including membership benefits, please visit bushnell.org/support or call Antay Bilgutay at 860-987-6004.

THE BUSHNELL SERVICES

The Customer Relations Desk is located on the Belding First Floor Lobby. If you need assistance during the performance, please ask an usher for a House Manger, or visit the Customer Relations Desk.

The Bushnell Box Office

The Bushnell Box Office is open Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., and Sunday beginning at noon (on Bushnell-ticketed performance days only). The Box Office remains open 30 minutes after curtain for all performances. Telephone (860) 987-5900. Tickets, news, and information are available online at www.bushnell.org.

Parking

Secure and well-lit free parking is available in the State of Connecticut lot at 107 Capitol Ave. and the Buckingham Garage at 315 Buckingham St. These locations are first-come, first-served and open 2 hours before each performance and closes 1 hour after. Accessible parking is available in both locations with a valid accessible parking permit. In addition, valet parking is available for most evening and weekend performances at a cost of $15 per vehicle. Excludes weekday matinees.

Late Arrival

Late seating will be at the discretion of the production and requires that late patrons wait to enter the theater until a designated break in the performance. For your convenience, closed circuit televisions are in the lobbies.

In Case of an Emergency

Exits are indicated by signs located above the theater entrances. For your safety, please check the location of the exit nearest your seat. In the event of an evacuation, Bushnell staff and volunteers are available to assist you.

Café

Visit Max's Café for a quick bite before the show. Max's Café features soups, salads, sandwiches, pastries and more. Max's Café is open 2 hours prior to most shows.

Disruptive Behavior

Any patron who poses a health or sanitary risk; disturbs other patrons; causes damage to The Bushnell property; or does not cooperate with staff and security personnel will be asked to leave the venue.

Electronic Devices

Cellular phones and other electronic devices should be silenced prior to entering the theater. Text messaging and the use of other devices that cause unnecessary light are prohibited in the theater.

End of Performance

For your safety and the safety of your fellow patrons, please do not leave your seat until the house lights have been turned on. Not only is it dark, but it is inconsiderate to others, including the performers.

Tours

Onsite and offsite tours are given by appointment and are complimentary. Please visit Bushnell.org/visit/tours to request a tour.

Children

Everyone attending performances at The Bushnell must have a ticket, regardless of age. To ensure optimum enjoyment for all patrons, we recommend that children under 5 only attend shows in the Family Series and The Bushnell Children's Theatre. The Bushnell staff reserves the right to ask any parents/guardians whose children cause disruptions during a performance to leave the theater.

Lost & Found

Call (860) 987.6061 or email feedback@bushnell.org for lost items.

Accessibility Information

The Bushnell is equipped with accessible entrances, ramps, elevators, and restrooms. When ordering your tickets, be sure to tell the Box Office of any special requirements. Information on the Sennheiser MobileConnect App, Assisted Listening Devices and induction loops are available at the Customer Relations Desk to assist with sound amplification and clarity. A photo ID must be presented. Patrons are encouraged to bring their own headphones. Disposable earbuds are available, if needed. Audio Description and ASL are available for select performances. Sensory-Friendly/Relaxed performances are available throughout the season. Sensory-Friendly supports can be found at the Customer Relations Desk for all performances. For a list of accessible performances, visit bushnell.org/visit/accessibility.

If you have any additional questions or comments regarding Bushnell services, please contact the Box Office at (860) 987-5900 or feedback@bushnell.org
