SETTING & STORY

New Year's Eve – Uptown, USA

Act I – During the annual uptown holiday street party, Maria-Clara is upset by her parents' constant bickering. The mysterious Drosselmeyer appears, bringing magical toys to the party. Drosselmeyer then introduces Maria-Clara to a street vendor selling roasted nuts, who catches her eye because he is different from the other boys on the block. After the party breaks up, Maria-Clara heads home, but on her way, she runs into the menacing Mouse Crew. The Nutcracker, aided by a magic pair of sneakers, defeats the Mouse King and the couple enjoys the romance of winter's first snowfall.

The Hip Hop Nutcracker will be performed with one 20-minute intermission.

Act II – Drosselmeyer meets Maria-Clara and the Nutcracker and takes them back in time to the Land of Sweets nightclub on New Year's Eve, 1984. Invisible, the couple watches the party-goers show off the dance styles of the day. Suddenly Maria-Clara realizes she is witnessing the night her parents first met and is overcome by how they were once deeply in love. Back in the present, and with a little more magic, Maria-Clara and The Nutcracker help Mom and Dad reconcile. The community joins them in the celebration.

KURTIS BLOW (Special Guest MC) is one of the founders and creators of recorded rap. A timeless artist and hip hop legend, Kurtis blazed the trail for early hip hop artists and continues to carry the torch for hip hop music in new arenas. Kurtis is credited with many accolades, and was the first rapper to ever be signed to a major label, release a certified gold rap album (The Breaks), tour the United States and Europe, record a national commercial (Sprite), use the drum machine, sample and sample loop, release a rap music video, and become a millionaire. In 1979, at the age of 20, Kurtis Blow became the first rapper to be signed by a major label. He released Christmas Rappin', which sold over 400,000 copies and became an annual classic. Its gold follow-up, The Breaks, helped ignite an international "rap attack," solidifying the new art form. He released 10 albums over 11 years and his early projects made him an instant success at home and across Europe. Pioneering records like Party Time introduced the fusion of rap and go-go. Hit songs like "8 Million Stories," "AJ," and "Basketball" were simply ahead of their time, and still get spins by DJs today. Fellow rap legend Nas debuted at #1 on the Billboard Charts with a cover of Kurtis' "If I Ruled the World" in 1997. Beyond his own hits, Kurtis contributed to the success of The Fat Boys and Run DMC. In fact, Run began his career billed as "The Son of Kurtis Blow." Among countless others, Wyclef Jean, Lovebug Starski, Sweet Gee, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, Full Force, and Russell Simmons all have been produced by or have worked with Kurtis in the past. Kurtis' multidisciplinary skillset has taken him across the country and overseas to score, produce, and act in various films. Most notably, he played a large role in the production of the hit film Krush Groove. The New York Daily News called his cinematic works a "noteworthy, dynamic presence." Kurtis Blow's reach transcends that of your typical entertainer. He has completed multiple world tours since the turn of the new millennium, and continues to work on other creative endeavors. His innate ability to reach people is evident in his work as an activist, radio personality, and most recently, an ordained minister and leader of the Hip Hop Church. Artists still pay their respects to Kurtis' trailblazing in a number of ways. His influence has been mentioned in seemingly every important Hip-Hop film in the past decade, from Get Rich or Die Tryin' to Notorious and Straight Outta Compton. He has a prominent presence on Television as well, with his music appearing on shows such as "Dancing With The Stars" and "SportsCenter." He also was an associate producer on the Netflix hit series "The Get Down." Outside of music, Kurtis has long been a very spiritual man. He went back to school to become an ordained minister, and has been preaching at churches around the world. His work with The Hip-Hop Church has helped bridge the gap between the art form and the church. Education has long been important to Kurtis. He has been a champion of higher education, and advocates for bringing Hip-Hop culture into the curriculums of our institutions. The rap pioneer has given talks at schools such as Berklee College of Music in Boston and CalArts in California and plans to continue to carry the culture into the classroom. JACKIE "JK-47" AGUDO (Tea, Ensemble) aka Bgirl JK-47 of Diamonds In The Rough, Supreme Beingz and sponsored dancer for Monster Energy, can serve as a role model for multi-talented, hard-working artists everywhere. A recognized international competitor, she took top prize at Red Bull's very first BC One Camp USA B-Girl Cypher in 2018. In addition, she has performed on a plethora of stages and is now currently on tour with The Hip Hop Nutcracker. She tours throughout the U.S. and the world as a workshop facilitator teaching, encouraging and inspiring people of all ages with her love and passion for the culture and art of street dance.

LISA "L-BOOGIE" BAUFORD (Drosselmeyer) is an LA-based dancer, choreographer, writer, actor, and educator who hails from St. Petersburg, Florida. Lisa recently finished a production on a Las Vegas residency at The Stratosphere with iLuminate. Lisa also completed her Third year with the national tour of the Hip-Hop Nutcracker as Drosselmeyer, which also features hip-hop legend Kurtis Blow. In 2012, Bauford appeared Off-Broadway for iLuminate, a company that fuses dance and technology, in the Artist of Light series at Duke Theatre, and later at New World Stages. Performing as Starlight Jones, the character Lisa created for Artists of Light, Bauford appeared in a CBS March Madness commercial, which she choreographed. Lisa has also appeared in Google's Made with Code commercial, on the Wendy Williams Show, Good Morning America, and on "America's Got Talent." She is a member of iLuminate's World Tour corporate cast as an educator, performer, and dance captain, roles which have taken her to China, Egypt, France, Germany, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Samoa, Saudi Arabia, Switzerland, and Uzbekistan.

DJ BOO (Original Beats & Remixes, Performance DJ) is a-NY based Fil-Am DJ/musician who has shared the stage with Ghostface Killah, DJ Kool Herc (The Godfather of Hip Hop), KRS-1, Snoop Dogg, and Common. He has backed wordsmiths like Eternia, The Juggaknots, and Omar Offendum. In 2014 he served as a cultural ambassador for the U.S. in Nepal, Mozambique, and Swaziland where he performed and conducted Hip Hop workshops alongside The Nomadic Wax Collective as part of the American Music Abroad Tour. He has performed at Jacob's Pillow with Brooklyn based Hip Hop dance company, Decadancetheatre. In Spring of 2022 Boo created and performed an original piece sampling the work of Igor Stravinsky at Jennifer Weber's "Stravinsky Imagined" at The Baryshnikov Arts Center.

ANTHONY "OMEN" CABRERA (Toy, Ensemble) was born on November 7, 1983. A vivacious child, he always loved to dance – it didn't matter if it was a family gathering or a large party. While growing up in Boston and the Dominican Republic, he discovered hip hop and breakdancing (Bboying) through television, but it wasn't until his high school years that he started training in Bboying. Soon after, he realized his natural ability for dancing and improved rapidly. With the body awareness to control the acrobatic elements of Bboying and the creativity to develop an original style, Omen was quickly recognized by peers and established Bboys of the dance community. Currently, Omen is part of the world-renowned Bboy crew based out of New York City, Supreme Beings. In addition to winning numerous solo and group competitions at both the national and international level, Anthony has contributed to the dance community by sitting on judging panels and conducting workshops. As a performer, he is part of both G-Force Entertainment and Raw Miami Entertainment. When he is not on board a Carnival cruise ship as a performer, Anthony keeps busy performing for music artists, corporate parties, clubs and street shows. His other professional interests include modeling and acting.

ANN-SYLVIA CLARK (Maria-Clara) was born and raised in Norway. She started out as a gymnast at an early age, but later on focused her interest more toward dance. She studied dance at Flow Dance Academy (DK). She performed with Snoop Dogg and Pharrell Williams at the 2006 MTV Europe Music Awards (EMAs) in Denmark. Since moving to New York, Ann-Sylvia has toured the U.S. and the United Kingdom. She has also performed on television shows including, "Good Day New York" on Fox 5, CBS, PBS, ESPN, Telemundo and "Fake Off" on TruTV. She has also performed in music videos for artists such as Alicia Keys, Styles P, JBalvin and Ben L'Oncle Soul. TV viewers can find her in commercials for the US Open, Samsung, Verizon, Digicel and Reebok. Ann-Sylvia also has played the role of the Queen in the Bridgerton experience "The Queen's Ball" a Netflix and Shondaland immersive Production.

HALIMA DODO (Swing) is a dance artist who captivates audiences on screen and on stage. She has performed for major recording artists like Meek Mill, DJ Khaled, Justin Beiber, Daddy Yankee, Anitta, and Yemi Alade, web shows on Pop Sugar and Steezy, and various indie/feature films—including Ryan Murphy's The Prom and Beyonce's Black Is King. Through dance, Halima has enjoyed a career that goes beyond the limits of commercial and community—immersing her passion in culture-driven spaces at Movement Lifestyle, Vessel and Voyage Dance Company, Motus the Company, Cambio Studio, and more. Halima currently shares time between Los Angeles and Miami, Florida where she continues to explore and celebrate genuine expressions in Hip Hop, House, Dancehall, and Experimental Fusions in dance culture.

GABRIEL EMPHASIS (The Nutcracker) Born in the Dominican Republic, Gabriel's passion for the arts started at an early age. In 2005, he discovered Breaking, the street dance that inspired him to pursue a career in dance. Fascinated by the acrobatics and stylish movement, his drive to develop this passion led him to NYC, a mecca to many artists. There, his passion caught the eye of many companies, agents, and producers, who got him to collaborate with many artists from different backgrounds. Having never taken a dance class before, these opportunities inspired him to explore new ways of movement, which along with his dedication lifted his career to what it is now. Today, his career has allowed him to bring his love for the arts to more than 20 countries around the world, and has given him countless opportunities to work for productions, brands, and artists he could have only dreamed of as a kid.

ETHAN EVARO (Swing). A San Diego, California native, moved to Los Angeles to pursue a career in the entertainment industry while getting an education. He graduated with a BFA in Commercial Dance from Hussian College In Studio, Los Angeles in 2021. Though specializing in break dancing, Ethan has trained extensively in a variety of dance styles and prides himself on his versatility. He recently completed a Europe and United Kingdom tour for the renowned drag queen, Vanessa Vanjie Mateo, and has also performed in Janet Jackson's "Unbreakable" tour. Along with these accomplishments, Ethan has also performed and worked at a variety of charity events including, A Salute to Teachers and The Natural High Anniversary. Ethan strives to bring his break dancing roots and a calm, hardworking attitude into all his professional endeavors.

RANDI "RASCAL" FREITAS (Mouse King, Ensemble, Associate Choreographer, Dance Captain) is a versatile dancer, choreographer, and master educator based in Los Angeles, CA. Randi has performed with artists such as Justin Timberlake, SZA, Travis Scott, Karol G and Kaytranada, and she can be seen in commercials for AT&T, Toyota, and Target. She has performed on Jimmy Kimmel, James Corden, The Ellen Show, The American Music Awards, The Kid's Choice Awards, The Grammy's, and more. "Rascal" Randi toured the nation as Associate Director/Choreographer of the Emmy Award winning The Hip Hop Nutcracker, toured Japan with the Breaking theater show The Battle, and recently wrapped filming on Spirited, Apple's newest musical starring Will Ferrell and Ryan Reynolds, and Disney+ The Hip Hop Nutcracker Holiday film, both to be released Christmas 2022. In the underground scene Randi is still active and was not only the 2021 RedBull BC One Boston Winner, but was also a 2021 RedBull BC One US National Finalist. Recently she placed as a Bronze Medalist in the Arizona Open Regional Olympic Qualifiers. As an educator, Randi taught Hip Hop at The University of Southern California and CalArts, has taught throughout the US, and internationally in France, Belgium, Canada, Thailand, and Mexico. In addition to her work in the industry, community, and institution, she is currently in partnership with NIKE as a consultant for branding and specialty shoe building. Randi most recently is the Founder and Director of OMEGA Flow Floorwork, a training program, company, and curriculum for dancers worldwide. While her training program is not exclusive to womxn, it stands as a space of integrity for them to learn and grow.

LILY FRIAS (Mom) Born and raised in Mexico, Liliana (Lily) Frias has been dancing for 13 years and is currently working as a professional dancer in Los Angeles. Beginning her career as a technical dancer, Lily found her true calling when she mastered the hip hop styles and the art of freestyle, specifically the styles of whacking and popping. She has been featured in a variety of productions, including "So You Think You Can Dance" (Season 12), "America's Best Dance Crew" (Season 7), Cirque du Soleil, dance battles, national commercials, and Red Bull BC One 2018. She is also known for teaching and performing in the U.S., Europe, Latin America, and Japan, individually and as a part of her crew known as Femme Fatale.

SETH "REAKTION" HILLARD (Candy, Ensemble) attended Toledo School for the Arts where he crafted his love for dance and choreography. Combining uncanny flexibility, imaginative versatility, and meticulous musicality he made a name for himself as B-boy Reaktion, winning Midwest and National Bboy competitions. While evolving his craft in dance Seth also developed other skills in tumbling, skateboarding, and martial arts like Capoeira. In 2012 he packed up his dream and moved to LA to pursue a career in Dance. Within a matter of a few months Seth landed his target agency, booked his first audition, and was working as a professional dancer. Michael Jackson's video, "Love Never Felt So Good" and Nick Cannon's video, "Looking For A Dream" are just some of the work Seth has on his blooming resume. Featuring in commercials for Pepsi, Men's Warehouse, and a VH1 Super Bowl spot, the extremely humble and always smiling Seth has grown fast in the entertainment industry. He credits his advances in dance to working with top choreographers such as Chuck Maldonado, Tone & Rich, Oth'than Burnside, and many more.

BRYAN LONGCHAMP (Dad), Brooklyn native, has danced professionally for over a decade in styles ranging from hip hop to Krump and popping. Bryan is a core member of the dance company iLuminate, known as Team iLuminate on popular television show "America's Got Talent." With the company, he has traveled and performed in countries such as Mexico, Hong Kong, Malaysia, the Bahamas, and Saudi Arabia to name a few. He has also performed on some of the biggest Broadway stages right here at home. You may have seen Bryan in music videos such as "Can You Hear Me" by Omarion or "Tout et Goure" by Luz and the Yakuza or even in his performances on The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon. As a dance educator, Bryan has been teaching for over seven years, and trains both children and adults to fall in love with dance and be the best that they can be!

JON "GIFTED" JIMENEZ (Chocolate, Ensemble). Born in El Paso raised in Dallas, Texas, Jon grew his movement artistry in the heart of the Dallas metroplex, becoming one of the most influential leaders in the community. He now shares his knowledge, love & experience for dance & how it contributed to his mental, physical & emotional health along his path. Providing insight into the culture while exposing the depths of where movement can ignite the human spirit. Fun Fact: Has a lot of interesting voices & sounds. If you hear a bird in the theater, it's probably him.

VIVEK MENON (Violinist) is a violinist based in New York City. Since he first picked up a violin at the age of three, Vivek has used music as a spiritual form of self-expression. He is classically trained, and has worked with notable classical musicians such as Jennifer Koh, Ray Chen, and members of the Kronos and Emerson string quartets. Vivek loves to experiment with what is possible on the violin, which has led to collaborations in several genres. Most recently, his violin arrangements on Lei Line Eon, the latest album by British electronic musician Iglooghost, were described as "gorgeous" (Loud and Quiet Magazine), "haunting" (ourculture), and "eloquent and inviting...[lending] a bittersweet timelessness" (The Guardian). Vivek is currently pursuing a doctoral degree in violin performance at Stony Brook University, where he studies with Phil Setzer.

ZUCE MORALES (Toy, Ensemble). Born and raised in Puebla, Mexico, where she began her formal dance training at the age of 15, and moved to Los Angeles in 2016 when she was 19 years old in order to pursue her dreams as a professional dancer. She is trained in Hip Hop, Whacking, Popping, House, and other dance forms but her specialty is Locking. While she trained at the legendary Debbie Reynolds Dance Studios, Movement Lifestyle and Millennium, she attended Glendale College where she got two certifications, one in Dance Teaching and another in Choreography and Dance Technique Studies. Currently, Zuze is focused on making the Locking dance community grow in Los Angeles, by teaching at professional studios like Millennium Dance Complex and hosting free community sessions in the area called "LA Locking Lab." Her goal is to give opportunities to the new generation of dancers who care and respect the legacy of the street dance OGs.

TYLER SINGLETARY (Flute, Ensemble) started his dance journey in Saint Petersburg, FL and is now based in Los Angeles. He's been dancing for 10+ years, starting off in the street community, and soon after finding himself in the commercial industry. He works as a commercial dancer and battles/judges street style dance events. Some of his accomplishments include winning WOD Orlando and Red Bull DYS LA. He's danced for artists including The Jacksons, Kirk Franklin, Giveon and more. Tyler's involvement in both communities gives him a unique perspective on hip-hop dance. He recognizes this dance as a culture and a way of life.

JENNIFER WEBER (Director, Choreographer) Broadway/West End: & Juliet (Olivier Nomination), KPOP. Off-Broadway: KPOP (Ars Nova, Lortel Nomination), Teenage Dick (The Public), Cruel Intentions (LPR). Film: Disney Zombies 2, While You Were Gone (Emmy Win) The Hip Hop Nutcracker

(PBS Special Live Capture, Emmy Win). Weber recently collaborated with Disney as Executive Producer and Choreographer to create a new film version of The Hip Hop Nutcracker coming this holiday season to Disney+. TV: America's Got Talent, Good Morning America, Strictly Come Dancing (UK). Choreography commissions include work for New York City Center, Baryshnikov Arts Center and Tulsa Ballet. @jenniferwebernyc

MIKE FITELSON (Writer/Co-Creator) is the executive producer at the United Palace, the 91-year-old Wonder Theatre in Washington Heights, Manhattan's 4th largest theatre. In 2014 as the executive director of the nonprofit United Palace of Cultural Arts (UPCA) he co-created The Hip Hop Nutcracker with Jennifer Weber, adapting the story and supplying the images for the scenery, and produced its premiere. Fitelson has worked to build the Northern Manhattan arts community for 18 years. He co-founded the annual arts festival, the Uptown Arts Stroll, in 2003; served in every capacity of the Manhattan Times, the bilingual community newspaper of Washington Heights and Inwood, from 2002-2011; and helped found the nonprofit Northern Manhattan Arts Alliance in 2006. He is thrilled the show is returning to the Paramount Theatre in his hometown of Oakland, CA, where he watched his first Nutcracker in the early 1980s.

ASHLEIGH KING (Associate Director) is a DC-area performer, Helen Hayes award-winning choreographer, and teaching artist. Most recently, she served as Assistant Director to Moritz Von Stuelpnagel and Movement Coordinator for Teenage Dick at Woolly Mammoth. Her work has been seen in Working: A Musical with the Labor Heritage Foundation at Black Lives Matter Plaza, Fairview at Woolly Mammoth, Second City's Love Actually at the Kennedy Center, and Artscentric, Adventure Theatre MTC, and Toby's Dinner Theater. Her performance credits include multiple productions at The Kennedy Center, Olney Theatre, Ford's Theatre, Studio Theatre, and Signature Theatre.

MOE SHAHROOZ (Video Designer) is a video artist based in New York City. He specializes in animation, editing, and interactive video design. He has worked on a wide variety of projects ranging from television shows, award shows, fashion shows, music videos, and numerous theatrical productions. His work has been showcased in more than 100 theaters throughout the world. He holds a Master's Degree from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts. He is also known for performing and producing music under the moniker I. Sheik. He is proud to be working with The Hip Hop Nutcracker.

LAURIEN DE MUNCK (Stylist) A young female from Belgium, Laurien transitioned from being a dancer to pursue her passion for styling. Since the beginning of her journey in this field, her dedication to the work and motivation to grow has led her to exceptional projects and experiences. She took her time to explore a combination of collaborations, commissioned work and side projects. Throughout her career, she's had the great fortune to work on some truly inspiring projects, while meeting many influential and creative individuals along the way. Laurien believes in working together to create a whole that is greater than the sum of its parts. She has worked and styled for multiple magazines and brands such as DOLLS KILL. Her personal touches for individuals in the industry have changed careers and have helped booked numerous jobs. Laurien will continue to strive to link personal happiness from the inside to radiating a personal beauty on the outside, whilst always respecting the soul and energy of the clientele.

JOHN N. FORTUNATO (Production Supervisor) is thrilled to be joining the Hip Hop Nutcracker team!
