Arriving at The Bushnell

Arrive at The Bushnell,
166 Capitol Avenue in Hartford, CT.

Parking is across the street. The staff will help you find it.

After you park, it's time to go into the theater.
There might be a line!

There's a security checkpoint for your safety.
Here we will quickly check any bags or items that you have on you.

Then it's time to scan the tickets!
Hold the ticket under the scanner until the screen turns green!

There will be volunteers and staff members onsite if you need assistance.

Now it's time to head to the show! You may take the stairs or elevator.

If you have trouble finding your way, ask a volunteer or staff member!

If you're hungry or thirsty you may go to the concession stand and grab something.

There are also restrooms available.

You can also stop at the coloring or resource table we have available for patrons to use before entering the theater.

Viewing Options

Your seat will be somewhere in this theater! An usher will show you where your seats are.

If it gets too loud and you need a break, there is a quiet space with flexible seating and reduced sound.
